STACY LEWIS GIVES BACK

Former University of Arkansas and current Ladies Professional Golf Association star Stacy Lewis became the first female member of the Razorback Foundation's Century Circle, with her gift to the golf program.

Lewis, a The Woodlands, Texas, native, is the first former female student-athlete to donate $100,000 or more to the program. Her gift is earmarked for expansion of the Razorback golf training facilities at Blessings.

"We are grateful to Stacy Lewis for her generous gift which will directly benefit current and future Razorback student-athletes," Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics Jeff Long said. "Despite her demanding schedule, Stacy continues to support the Razorbacks in a variety of ways including remaining active with our women's golf program. Stacy's personal story of overcoming adversity to achieve success continues to serve as an inspiration to others. We are extremely proud of Stacy and what she is doing on the LPGA Tour and in our community. She is a tremendous ambassador for the University of Arkansas and for the Razorback program."

Lewis is a three-time winner on the LPGA Tour including two victories this season and a major championship at the Kraft Nabisco last year. Lewis is currently ranked No. 2 in the world and is the highest ranked American player.

"I was fortunate enough to get to know Stacy at a time when golf took a back seat to her getting healthy after surgery," said Arkansas head coach Shauna Estes-Taylor. "It was during this time I really began to understand her commitment to her dream of becoming a professional athlete. As I worked with her that first year when she was so limited physically, I saw that Stacy was invested in not only her own success but the success and growth of our program. She had a great student-athlete experience at Arkansas and now her gift will enhance the experience of others who have the dream of being Razorbacks."

"We are so proud of all that Stacy has accomplished," said G. David Gearhart, the university's former chancellor. "This generous gift reflects her own pride in her alma mater and her commitment to helping other U of A students pursue their dreams and goals. We are most appreciative of her gift."

Lewis was a member of the Razorback women's golf team from 2005-08. She redshirted her first season on campus after having surgery to address her scoliosis. Lewis recovered quickly earning four All-Southeastern Conference and National Golf Coaches Association All-America honors. Lewis was a two-time SEC Championship medalist and won the 2007 NCAA Individual title shooting a course record 66 in the final round at LPGA International.

While at Arkansas, Lewis helped the Razorbacks to four NCAA Regional selections and three NCAA Championship team appearances. Arkansas won three tournaments and Lewis picked up a school record 13 individual titles during her collegiate career.

Lewis graduated in 2008 with a degree in finance from Arkansas. She won Qualifying School in the fall of 2008 earning her LPGA Tour Card in her first year as a pro.

The Razorback Foundation's Century Circle has more than 50 members who have contributed to fund various programs on campus.

STACY'S GIFT - SEC INSIDER

STACY LEWIS: HURRICANE HARVEY 'CHANGED MY PERSPECTIVE ON THINGS'

(CNN)

Closing in on her first LPGA win since 2014, Stacy Lewis admits that lifting the trophy and pocketing the $195,000 prize money were far from her thoughts.

Instead, the American golfer had another goal on her mind: to donate her Cambia Portland Classic winnings to the Houston Relief Fund set up in the aftermath of Hurricane Harvey.

It was a victory for the people of Houston -- the town she now calls home.

"This week changed my perspective on things a lot," Lewis told CNN. "You kind of get caught up in trying to win golf tournaments. Trying to win was the last thing I was thinking about -- I was thinking about that check.

"It's amazing how that's all I had worked for over the past three years -- about getting the win, and yet that was the last thing I thought about on Sunday."

The hurricane has claimed 53 lives and forced tens of thousands out of their homes and into aid shelters. Houston authorities have said it will "take years" for the city to recover as it comes to terms with the extent of the devastation.

One of 32-year-old Lewis' sponsors agreed to match her donation, while another has donated an undisclosed amount. The two-time major champion said she hopes the money will help rebuild housing for those whose lives have been devastated by the storm.

"I learned a lot about needing to have an appreciation for what we get to do," Lewis added. "There's always people to help, whether it's a hurricane or a storm, there will always be people who are in a worse situation than us.

"I've always thought athletes are role models. You're gifted with a talent, you're gifted with an ability, and it's not just to go out there and play golf, play football, or whatever it is.

"There's always going to be people watching you. You're a role model whether you like it or not."

A long wait comes to an end

Lewis moved to Texas at the age of 11, and still lives there with her husband Gerrod Chadwell, who is the University of Houston's head coach of women's golf.

She had promised the day before the event to donate her winnings to her adopted hometown and delivered in style following 12 runner-up finishes since her last LPGA victory.

Lewis held a three-shot lead heading into Sunday and withstood a late charge from In Gee Chun, shooting three-under in the final round to beat her South Korean opponent by one stroke.

"I'm excited to get the monkey off my back and just to know I can do it," said Lewis, referring to the 83 tournaments she's played since that 2014 win. "I can hit the shots when I need to and hit the putts when I need to. It's nice to see yourself do that again."

Other golfers have also supported the Houston Relief Fund.

Sergio Garcia, whose wife is a Texas native, has promised $2,000 for every birdie and $5,000 for every eagle he makes during the FedExCup, while world No. 1 Dustin Johnson made an unspecified donation to the Red Cross. Championship. That's a long time to have gone without closing out a victory.

Though Lewis started the final round with a three-shot lead in Portland, the last day wasn't an easy one. In Gee Chun, who was playing with Lewis, steadily chipped away at the lead until they were walking down the 18th, Lewis up by only one. Chun put her approach over the green. Lewis, whose drive ended up in a fairway bunker, put her approach to about 25 feet.

After Chun's chip settled six feet from the hole, Lewis had two putts to win. She hit a good lag putt and when the three-footer that was left went in, Lewis had won and the money was going to Houston. The intensely focused, sometimes stoic, Lewis was emotional when her husband came on the green to hug her.

He had flown to from Houston to Portland Sunday to surprise her.

Lewis' gift was featured on SEC Insider which first aired Aug. 26, 2018.

BLESSINGS EXPANSION

The expansion of the Razorbacks Training facility, the Fred and Mary Smith Center, includes an indoor putting facility with surface that allows the Razorbacks to hone our short game skills in all areas. The space also includes expanded locker rooms, as well as a weight room that will allow each team to do golf specific training on site at the golf course.

BLESSINGS

Blessings Golf Club was developed with the vision of being a club of comfort to its members and their guests by providing a superior golfing experience designed to test championship golfers on every shot. The Club is located in Johnson, Arkansas, and is the home to the University of Arkansas Men's and Women's Golf Teams.

The impeccably maintained course stretches to over 7,900 yards from the back tees and plays through two distinct landforms-the Clear Creek floodplain and a plateau that rises to 65 feet above the floodplain where it's bisected by a series of ravines. Both the outward and inward nines climb up and down between the two topographies, creating drama and variety on each hole. The course was originally designed by architect Robert Trent Jones, Jr. with a redesign recently completed by noted architect Kyle Phillips.

The extensive practice areas are unrivaled and provide both indoor and outdoor facilities. The Indoor Short Game Practice and Fitness Facility includes a 9,000 square foot short game practice area with a 3,000 square foot putting and chipping green designed by Dave Pelz. The facility also provides a state-of-the-art 2,000 square foot fitness facility. The Razorback Center houses five indoor hitting bays and one private teaching bay with video analysis equipment. The building also includes locker facilities and a break room for the University of Arkansas golf teams.

The outdoor practice areas feature a range with multiple teeing areas and numerous range targets to allow realistic practice sessions. The short game facilities include several bentgrass putting and short game greens as well as a bermudagrass green. A separate three-acre short game practice area has also been added which features practice greens that are 4,500 and 16,000 square feet in size, practice bunkers and a putting green.

The clubhouse, a Marlon Blackwell design, has won numerous awards including recognition by Architectural Digest as one of the top golf clubhouses in the world. Amenities include a well-appointed golf shop, locker facilities, multiple dining venues and a pool.

The course contact is Richard Cromwell, CCM, PGA, General Manager/COO; and Justin Sellin, PGA, Head Golf Professional.

PINNACLE COUNTRY CLUB

Women's professional golf is a fixture in the state of Arkansas, joining the Razorbacks at one of their home courses - Pinnacle Country Club in Rogers. Located in the northwest portion of The Natural State, Pinnacle Country Club hosts an international field of LPGA Tour professionals at the Walmart Northwest Arkansas Championship presented by P&G at Pinnacle Country Club. The week-long championship includes a variety of community events, Pro-Am play and three days of LPGA competition.

The Razorbacks are currently the only Southeastern Conference team whose course is hosting an LPGA event this year and are one of just a handful of major college programs with an event on their home course.

In addition, the Razorbacks compete all season to qualify for two of the Monday play-in spots for the championship.

Founded in 1990, Pinnacle Country Club is one of Northwest Arkansas' premier golf and tennis facilities. The course, designed by Don Sechrest in association with Bruce Lietzke, stretches 6,695 yards from the back tees with a course rating of 72.8 and a slope of 131. The Razorbacks compete from Pinnacle's white tees with a length of 6,102 yards.

Located 20 minutes north of Fayetteville in Rogers, Ark., Pinnacle is known both for its course difficulty and homesite elegance.

Pinnacle is graced with generous landing areas, but its large, undulated greens require both precision and accuracy. Its par 3s are extremely challenging including Pinnacle's signature hole, No. 15. This hole requires a golfer's most accurate mid-iron as the 160-yard downhill shot must carry to an island green.

While young in its existence, Pinnacle has a history as host of prestigious events including the Greg Norman Challenge in 1990 and the Philips Classic in 1992, an event that included several senior PGA players.

The grand clubhouse provides a comfortable setting for casual entertaining as well as formal events. The elegant design and location of the clubhouse evoke the Southern hospitality that welcomes all members "home."

WALMART NWA CHAMPIONSHIP

Stacy Lewis wins in 2014.

Northwest Arkansas returned to the Ladies Professional Golf Association's schedule in 2007 hosting the Walmart Northwest Arkansas LPGA Championship at Pinnacle Country Club.

Arkansas has been home to several events beginning with the Hardscrabble Women's Invitational Oct. 17-21, 1950, in Fort Smith, Ark. The event was won by Patty Berg.

The Hardscrabble Open returned to Fort Smith in 1952 and was followed by the Arkansas Open at the Country Club of Hot Springs, in Hot Springs, Ark., in 1956.

The LPGA added the Walmart Northwest Arkansas Championship in 2007. The commitment allows the Arkansas women's golf team and the Northwest Arkansas community to enjoy the sport at its best.

The inaugural event in 2007 was spectacular for Arkansas fans. Then junior Stacy Lewis earned a sponsor's exemption to play in the event and she blistered the course shooting a 65 in the first round.

Eight inches of rain, however, washed away Lewis' "win" as the tournament was declared a "non-event". Lewis was awarded the trophy and invited back for the 2008 event.

CURTIS CUP

CURTIS CUP RESULTS WITH RAZORBACK PLAYERS

The Curtis Cup is the best known team trophy for women amateur golfers, awarded in the biennial Curtis Cup Match (not "Matches"). It is co-organized by the United States Golf Association and the Ladies Golf Union and is contested by teams representing the United States and "Great Britain and Ireland". The same two teams originally contested the Ryder Cup, but unlike that competition, the Curtis Cup has not widened the Great Britain and Ireland team to include all Europeans (nor has the analogous event for amateur men, the Walker Cup). Many women who have gone on to become stars of women's professional golf have played in the Curtis Cup.

SOLHEIM CUP

SOLHEIM CUP RESULTS WITH RAZORBACK PLAYERS

The Solheim Cup is a biennial golf tournament for professional women golfers contested by teams representing Europe and the United States. It is named for the Norwegian-American golf club manufacturer Karsten Solheim, who was a driving force behind its creation.

The inaugural Cup was held in 1990, and the event was staged in even number years until 2002, alternating years with the Ryder Cup (the equivalent men's event between the USA and Europe). As part of the general re-shuffling of team golf events consequent to the one-year postponement of the 2001 Ryder Cup due to 9/11, the Solheim Cup switched to odd numbered years from 2003.

The US team is selected by a points system, with American players on the LPGA Tour receiving points for each top-twenty finish on tour.[1] For the European team, up to 2005, only seven players were selected on a points system based on results on the Ladies European Tour (LET). This allows top European players who compete mainly on the LPGA Tour to be selected to ensure that the European team is competitive. From 2007, only the top five players from the LET will qualify and another four will be selected on the basis of the Women's World Golf Rankings. This reflects the increasing dominance of the LPGA Tour, where almost all top European players spend most of their time.[2] In addition, each team has a number of "captain's picks", players chosen at the discretion of the team captains, regardless of their point standings, though in practice the captain's picks are often the next ranking players.

U.S. WOMEN'S OPEN

The United States Women's Open Golf Championship, one of thirteen national championships conducted by the United States Golf Association (USGA), is one of the LPGA's major championships along with the LPGA Championship, the Women's British Open, and the Kraft Nabisco Championship. It is the only event to have been recognized as a major by the LPGA since its founding in 1950; the other current majors were established later. The U.S. Women's Open is open to any professional or amateur female golfer. Amateurs must have an up-to-date USGA Handicap Index not exceeding 4.4. Players may obtain a place by being exempt or by competing successfully in qualifying. In 2002, a two stage method of qualification was introduced—18 holes for local qualifying and 36 holes for sectional qualifying. In 2010, the qualification process reverted to a single sectional stage of 36 holes played on a single day. The criteria for exemption from qualifying has changed through the years. In 2010, there were eleven exemption categories, including winners of the U.S. Women's Open for the last ten years, winners of the other three majors for the last five years, the top 50 from the previous year's LPGA Tour money list, the top five from the previous year's Japan LPGA Tour, Korea LPGA Tour, and Ladies European Tour money lists, and official winners of LPGA co-sponsored events for the 52 week period prior to the U.S. Women's Open.

LEWIS WINS ESPY

Stacy Lewis took home another trophy in 2013. Lewis, the No. 2 golfer in the world in the Rolex rankings, won the ESPY award as the top female golfer. Lewis won through a fan vote that ran on ESPN's web site. In 2012, Lewis won four events and had 16 top-ten tournament finishes, and has seven career wins and 47 top-ten finishes at that point in her career.

LEWIS WINS BRITISH OPEN

Winning her 2nd major at the Old Course at St. Andrews, the home of golf, by coming from behind with birdies on the last two holes - does it get any better than that?

Stacy Lewis won her third tournament of 2013 and, in the process, stopped Inbee Park's bid to win 4 majors in a row - the Grand Slam. After reaching the #1 ranking in March and holding it for 4 weeks, Stacy was passed by Park, who went on an unprecedented hot streak including 3 major wins in a row and overtaking Stacy for the #1 spot. But, by winning the Ricoh British Open, Stacy stopped another streak, by becoming the 1st non-Asian player to win a major since she won the Kraft Nabisco in 2011. The win also narrowed the gap between the top two players in the world and may be the beginning of another run to the #1 ranking.

Going into the Ricoh Women's British Open, Stacy was feeling pretty good about her chances. After all, she played her last amateur event at St. Andrews at the Curtis Cup, where she made history by achieving a 5-0 won/loss record and leading the US team to a commanding victory. She loved the course then and the Old Course loved her back on this major occasion. And her timing could not be more perfect as she will now lead the US team against the Europeans, this time at the biennial Solheim Cup, to be played in Colorado in two weeks in an effort to win back the Solheim Cup.

Whether it is winning a major for herself, or representing her country against the best golfers in the world, Stacy Lewis is proving time and again that she is the American face of golf and an inspiration for millions around the world.

CONGRATS, STACY!

- ▶ 2014 ROLEX PLAYER OF THE YEAR
- ▶ VARE TROPHY WINNER
- ▶ OFFICIAL MONEY TITLE

NAPLES, Fla. (AP) -- Stacy Lewis became the first American in 21 years to sweep the three biggest awards on the LPGA Tour, which she considered more valuable than a $1 million bonus.

The last American to sweep the awards was Betsy King in 1993.

"The $1 million would have been nice," said Lewis, who was six shots out of a playoff. "But those three, that's what I came here for. ... It's been hard to play the last four days, and it's nice to be done. I didn't have my best stuff. I'm pretty surprised to finish where I did."

Two years ago, the 29-year-old Lewis became the first American since Beth Daniel to win the points-based player of the year. She added the Vare Trophy a year ago. And on Sunday, she collected all three at the same time.

Inbee Park, the No. 1 in the world, was the only player who could have kept Lewis from the awards. She trailed in all of them, but struggled all week at Tiburon Golf Club and finished in a tie for 24th, four shots worse than Lewis.

Lewis finished atop the money list with $2,539,039, more than $300,000 over Park. Her scoring average was 69.532, while Park was second at 69.682. Michelle Wie was third in the Vare Trophy standings (69.818), followed by So Yeon Ryu at 69.978.

It was the first time in LPGA history that four women had a sub-70 scoring average.

Lewis felt as much stress during the week as at any major, mainly because Park was on a roll and Lewis was struggling. She received one good omen Saturday night when her family ordered Chinese food and her father tossed her a fortune cookie.

Lewis kept it in her pocket during the final day of the tournament and read it aloud to the media when she was done: "Good news of long-awaited event will arrive soon."

"The last couple of weeks have been tough," Lewis said. "The game hasn't been exactly where I wanted it to be. I figured (Park would) keep it rolling this week, and I knew I needed to find something. It was probably four of the hardest rounds of golf I've ever played."

Lewis won three times that year, though she failed to do so at a major. Still, she wouldn't trade what she ended up with.

"Before this week, it was good. Now it's a little bit better," Lewis said when asked to measure her year. "I'd like to have taken a major championship. But winning these three awards makes it almost great."
